

John 1:9

(1)

Think about John 1:9-11.

The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him.

1. To what place did the True Light come?
 2. When the True Light arrived, how was he welcomed?

Think about John 1:12-13.

But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

1. How does one receive the True Light?
 2. What does the True Light give to those who receive him?

Think about John 1:14, 17.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. ... For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

1. What did the Word become?
 2. What is he completely filled with?
 3. What is the name of the person whom the Word became?
